AML/ KYC POLICY

Introduction

OBO Holding Limited is a trademark of OBO Holding Limited Group. OBO Holding Limited Ltd, (hereinafter the “Company”), is authorized and regulated by the Saint Lucia Financial Services Authority (FSA).

The purpose of this Policy is to provide guidance on the Anti-Money Laundering and Know your Client Policy which is followed by the Company in order to achieve full compliance with the relevant anti-money laundering and counter terrorism legislation.

Definition of Money Laundering

The definition of money laundering covers those operations where a person knows, or should have reason to believe, that the money with which they are concerned is derived, obtained or realized, directly or indirectly, from an unlawful activity.

It is only necessary that the person should have knowledge or reasonable grounds for knowledge of the unlawful source of the funds to be guilty of the offence. Positive knowledge is not the test; knowledge may be inferred from objective factual circumstances.

AML Compliance Officer

The Company shall appoint an AML Compliance Officer, who shall be responsible of inter alia:

- monitoring the adequacy and effectiveness of the measures and procedures of the Company.
- advising and assisting the relevant persons responsible for carrying out the investment services be in compliance with the applicable legislation.

- training and educating the staff of the Company in respect with anti-money laundering and suspicious transactions.

- developing, designing and re-designing the appropriate procedures of the Company, so as to prevent and resolve potential conflicts of interest, ensuring that all the procedures regarding the Company’s conflict of interest policy are in place, as well as establishing and maintaining Chinese Walls procedures between the various organizational units of the Company. Regular checks will be performed to ensure the latter.
